

I do not believe the FCC should increase the ownership percentage of Corporations. The 35% level should be maintained. There are already too few people controlling media today.